

Dear Edmonds Montessori Families:

As we begin a new school year our class will participate in Scholastic book orders. Some of you have elementary children and are familiar with the ordering system or ordered with us last year.

We have tried over the years to never miss an opportunity to encourage children to enjoy books. Although we may not remember the beginning, our love for reading must have started at a very young age; before we were old enough to resist!

The books in Scholastic are quality, age appropriate, popular titles and low cost compared to our big bookstores. We will usually have more than one flyer for variety. If you are interested in placing an order, please fill out the back forms and attach with your payment, or follow the online directions below. The books generally arrive in 2-3 weeks.

We plan to send these out in September, November, January, March, and May. Please do not feel obligated to purchase anything our ordering through Scholastic is to promote the love of reading!

Our first book orders will be due Wednesday September 29th, 2010.

Happy reading☺

Miss Christi and Miss Esma
